

Litigation Lawyer

Pay: CA$81,209.70 - CA$189,451.27 per year

Firm Description

Cherkowski Marsden LLP is boutique firm with offices in Vernon, Enderby and Salmon Arm, British Columbia. Our team is client-centered and service-oriented, with specialties in general solicitor work, family law and civil litigation. We are seeking a civil litigation lawyer with 5+ years of experience to join our supportive and cohesive firm. For more information, please visit <https://www.cmlawyers.ca/>.

Role Description

This is a great opportunity for a lawyer to independently handle their own litigation law cases, provide legal advice, draft legal documents, represent clients in court, and negotiate and mediate settlements.

What we are seeking:

- A lawyer called to the bar in British Columbia
- 5+ years of experience in civil litigation
- A self-starter with strong advocacy and client service skills
- Strong organization and multitasking abilities
- A pragmatic and clear communication style with strong drafting skills
- Proven success in building client relationships
- Someone who enjoys being part of a collaborative and engaging team
- Independently manage all aspects of family law files from beginning to end

We offer:

- Excellent client base
- Friendly and supportive work environment
- Health and dental benefits package
- Staff parking

Location:

The position is a full-time, in-office position based in either our Vernon or Salmon Arm office (Hybrid working from home is an option that can be discussed).

How to Apply

Interested candidates are invited to submit their resume and cover letter to partners@cmlawyers.ca.

We thank all applicants for their interest; however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.
